Numb. 11064.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 31, to Saturday August 4, 1770.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, entitled, "An Act for registering the Prices at which Corn is sold in the several Counties of Great Britain, and the Quantity exported and imported," It was enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall, from Time to Time, appoint a fit Person to receive at the Treasury such Returns of the Prices of Corn, and of the Quantity exported and imported, as by the said Act are directed to be made; the first Appointment to be made before the first Day of August, 1770, and published Eight Times, at the least, in the London Gazette; Notice is therefore hereby given, in Pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have appointed William Cooke, Esq; to receive, at the Treasury, such Returns of the Prices of Corn, and of the Quantities exported and imported, as are directed by the said Act of Parliament.

Isle of Mann, July 14. On the 5th Instant, the Bishop of this Isle gave a Sermon in St. John's Chapel, as usual; and afterwards, at the Head of the Clergy, presented the following Address to the Governor; who, after answering their Address, proceeded with them to the Tynwald Hill, and went through the accustomed Ceremonies and Business of the Day, which gave the utmost Satisfaction to above Ten Thousand People present, and universally to the whole Island; it being the first High Court of Tynwald that has been holden there since the said Island has been vested in His Majesty.

To his Excellency John Wood, Esq; Governor in Chief and Captain-General of the Island and Dominion of Mann, and the Dependencies thereof.

The Humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon and the rest of the Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Sodor and Mann.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Sodor and Mann, animated with the warmest Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to the Person and Government of our Gracious Sovereign, and the highest Respect to your Excellency, embrace this Opportunity, at this First and Solemn Court of Tynwald, (since the Royalties of this Island were annexed to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain) to congratulate your Excellency on the Royal Favor of being commissioned His Majesty's Vicegerent in the Government of this Isle; and to felicitate this Island in general, on your Excellency's happy Appointment at the late Revolution; as no Circumstance could have been more favorable to the Peace and Happiness of the People committed to your Care at that Conjuncture, than His Majesty's wise and seasonable Continuance of your Excellency to the Government of this Land, where your prudent and equable Administration, during several previous Years, had so justly endeared your Excellency to all the Inhabitants thereof.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to participate in the general Joy, this Day conspicuous in every Face, to see their antient, supreme, constitutional, and so much wished for Court of Tynwald, restored to its former, or rather, superior Dignity and Importance, under your Excellency's wise and judicious Direction. And we beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that we shall, by a faithful Discharge of our Duty in our respective Stations, inculcate the strictest Principles of Loyalty and Duty to His Majesty, and chearful Obedience to all those put in Authority under Him; and more especially shall offer up our earnest Supplications to the Throne of Grace, that the Supreme Director of all Things would extend the Blessings of Peace and Unity through this and every other Part of His Majesty's Dominions; that your Excellency's Rule over us may be long, prosperous, and happy; with Health, Honour, and Wisdom to discharge the arduous Duties of your Station; and that His Majesty may never want so faithful a Representative, the Church so sincere a Well-wisher, or this Island so acceptable a Governor.

Mark Sodor and Mann.

To which the Governor returned the following Answer.

My Lord Bishop,

I AM bound in Duty to thank your Lordship for your warm Expressions of Affection and Loyalty to His Majesty's Person and Government; as I am no less in Gratitude

Gratitude for your very favorable Sentiments of my Adminiſtration.

This public Teſtimony of your Regard for me, at the Head of ſo reſpectable a Body, on this great Occaſion, is of all Things the moſt flattering; and muſt be ſo, when I conſider your Lordſhip's diſtinguiſhing Judgment; when I know the Sincerity of your Love for the People of this Iſland; and your unwearied Endeavours to promote their Happineſs both here and hereafter.

Your Applauſe, my Lord, reflects a Virtue on myſelf, and makes me proud indeed.

Mr. Archdeacon, and Gentlemen of the Clergy,

Your Zeal, on this Occaſion, calls alike for my moſt thankful Acknowledgments: The exemplary Conduct of your Lives, your ſtrict Attention to the Exerciſe of your Sacred Functions, leave me no Room to doubt of your Loyalty to the Crown, and your Fidelity to my Perſon. To deſerve your Eſteem has ever been my peculiar Study; to preſerve it ſhall be my conſtant Care. The ſame wiſe Providence, which has inſpired your Goodneſs, will, I doubt not, teach me, as far as I am able, to encourage and to reward its Labours.

Turin July 21. His Sardinian Majeſty went this Day to Aglié, the Seat of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Chablais, where he propoſes ſtaying till Monday Evening.

Their Royal Highneſſes the Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy are ſtill at Moncalier; and, as the Waters they are drinking there, perfectly agree with them, they propoſe ſtaying there till the End of this Month.

Paris, July 30. Letters from St. Domingo confirm the melancholy Account of the Calamity which happened there on the 3d of laſt Month. It is ſaid that the Earthquake extended 35 Leagues; the Sea roſe a League and a half up into the Iſland; a River is choaked up, and in a Manner almoſt loſt; four Towns almoſt deſtroyed; and the Sugar-Works demoliſhed. Fortunately it happened between Seven and Eight o'Clock in the Evening, when moſt of the Inhabitants were out of their Houſes; but the Number of White Perſons loſt are above Four hundred. The Fortunes of ſeveral great Families in this Country muſt have ſuffered by it.

By the KING's Royal Letters Patent.

(For ENGLAND and the PLANTATIONS)

HORSE-BALLS,

Prepared and ſold by WILLIAM RADLEY, Druggiſt and Chymiſt, N° 27. near Gray's-Inn Gate, Holborn.

THE Purging Ball contain, in a ſmall Compaſs, all the eſſential Qualities of a Stomachic Purge; they do not cloy a Horſe's Stomach as moſt other Purges do, but, without the leaſt Griping, ſcour a Horſe well, and make him ſtale plentifully. Horſes, after being badly or irregularly fed or coming from Graſs into a Stable, are apt, on Change of Diet, to have Humours flying about them, which ſettling on the Lungs, Legs, or Blood-Veſſels, cauſe either an obſtinate Cough, Greaſe, or Farcy, which might be prevented by a few Doſes of Phyſic, and therefore highly neceſſary for Horſes newly purchaſed. Price 2 s. each Parcel containing three Doſes.

DIURETIC BALLS, which effectually cure the Greaſe by a urinary Diſcharge; and are likewiſe very efficacious in carrying off thoſe ſharp Humours in the Blood, which frequently abound in Horſes, and are diſtinguiſhed not only by the Greaſe, but alſo in the Eyes and on the Skin; which theſe Balls, by promoting a due Secretion of the Juices, will remove and render the Coat beautiful. Price 2 s. per Pot.

THE Copartnerſhip of John Allen and John Doolan, of the High-ſtreet in the Borough of Southwark in the County of Surry, Upholders and Cabinet-makers, was this Day by mutual Conſent diſſolved: All Perſons indebted to the ſaid Copartnerſhip are deſired to pay their reſpective Debts to the ſaid John Allen, who continues to carry on the Buſineſs in the ſame Houſe. 27th July 1770.
